Red Nose Day 2017

Dear Parents/Carers

As you may or may not be aware Friday 24 March is Red Nose Day!

To celebrate Red Nose Day and raise some money for a wonderful cause, our school parliament has decided that this year your child is invited to dress in red for Comic Relief! If your child wishes to take part, we are asking for a small donation to be given to your child's class teacher.

Members of the school parliament will also be selling red noses every playtime in the library. If your child would like to buy one, please send him/her to school with £1.

We think this will be a really fun day and all funds raised will go to this worthy cause.

Warm wishes
